DocuPet is State of Delaware's official pet licensing provider.

Licensing your pet is now easier and more convenient than ever through Delaware Animal Services' new partnership with DocuPet, a leading pet profile and lost pet recovery platform.

Why do I need to license my dog?

- ❗ It's the law. All dogs in Delaware must be licensed and vaccinated against rabies.
- ❗ It identifies your pet. When you license your dog, they are officially recognized as a member of the community. All tags come equipped with the HomeSafe® 24/7 lost pet service, which has reunited thousands of lost pets with their families.
- ❗ It helps local animals in need. Lost dogs wearing valid license tags get home quicker, which opens up valuable shelter space and resources for animals in shelters who truly need it.

Linked tags

All of your pet's information is included in their online profile which links to their tag. Anyone who finds your pet can view their profile, submit a Found Pet Report, or contact the 24/7 HomeSafe® hotline for help.

Profiles built to reunite

Select details like contact info, emergency contacts, photos, and care instructions can be accessed by searching your pet's tag code for a quick, safe reunion.

The HomeSafe® 24/7 Lost Pet Service

Pet licenses are crucial for reuniting lost pets with their owners. DocuPet's HomeSafe® service has helped thousands, thanks to its dispatch team and linked pet profiles.

A Lost Pet Report can be created with one click, triggering immediate actions to locate your pet. Anyone who finds your pet can access your pet's profile via their tag, submit a Found Pet Report, or contact the number on the tag to help reunite them.

"I was at home when I received a call saying Henrik had been found. I was a bit confused because I thought he was sleeping. When I went to look for him I realized that he really was gone. Luckily a neighbor found him and called the DocuPet number on his tag. He was found before we even knew he was gone. I am so thankful!"
