

DELAWARE ANIMAL RESPONSE (DAR)

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The State Animal Response Team (SART) and Veterinary Medical Reserve Corps (VMRC)

Exciting statewide opportunities are available for citizen volunteers to assist in ensuring that Delaware's animals will be safe and cared for during emergencies and disasters - such as hurricanes, extreme winter storms, and floods.

Do you have animal care, handling, control, training, sheltering, or rescue experience?

Do you have emergency response experience?

Do you just love animals and want to help?

← Then DE SART needs you!

Are you a veterinarian, veterinary technician, or veterinary assistant?

← Then DE VMRC (a specialized unit of the DE SART) needs you!

Volunteers will assist in:

- Community outreach
- Pet preparedness education
- Animal emergency sheltering

To volunteer, contact Deanna Nash, DAR Program Coordinator at Deanna.Nash@delaware.gov
